The decision to close any Board meeting is always carefully considered and weighed in accordance with the Montana Constitutional provisions and sections 2-3-101 through 114, and 2-3-201 through 221, MCA. It is up to the public body to weigh the privacy rights and public's right to know, and in doing so, may close the meeting according to its discretion. Section 2-3-203 (3), MCA, expressly allows the presiding officer of any meeting to close the meeting if the presiding officer determines that the demands of individual privacy clearly exceed the merits of public disclosure.
